

Figure 4. Notice that as an object nears the horizon its top and bottom planes get shallower; conversely, as an object drops away from the horizon its top and bottom planes get deeper. Compare the ellipses at 1 and 2 with that of cone 3 and cylinder 4. Look for the principle in the world about you, even when you're not drawing.